AN ARMY AVIATOR

FATALLY INJURED.

Instructor Carl Hamilton Falls from Height of 100 Feet.

Washington, June 24.—Carl L. Hamilton, an instructor at the United States army aviation school, College Park, Md., was perhaps fatally injured this evening in an airplane accident. Hamilton was flying alone in a bi-plane and was at a height of 100 feet when the machine suddenly fell to the ground and was smashed to pieces. The aviator was pinned beneath the wreckage, but was quickly extricated by men of the signal corps stationed at the school. He was found to be badly injured and was hurried to a hospital here, where it was said his injuries might prove fatal. Hamilton came from Connersville, Ind.

Smuggling in England. Smuggling is still a fine art at Deal, England. Most of the smugglers are fishermen. The smuggling is mainly in tobacco and spirits. Smuggled tobacco is in strong request throughout the agricultural region of eastern Kent. It is hard, black, powerful and seems to suit the local palate. To the unaccustomed stranger it is not a pleasant smoke, but many a man of Kent waits anxiously for the arrival of the smuggler's carrier with his fresh supply.

LOOKING FOR A MATCH.

James Sullivan Found Prowling in Stone Row House at 2 A. M.—Held for Superior Court.

James, known as "Scope" Sullivan, who has been an inmate of the county jail many times for intoxication, was before the police court Tuesday morning. The charge against him this time however, was breaking into and entering the house of Michael Duda, 25 Stone row, at 2 o'clock Tuesday morning. Sullivan entered a plea of not guilty.

Officer Thomas Grady testified that Duda at 2:20 o'clock Tuesday morning informed him that a strange man was in his home; he had broken into the place, and was being held there under guard. The officer went to the house and found "Scope" in his stocking feet, seated between two men, calmly smoking his pipe. He asked where his shoes were and Sullivan said they were outside. They were found and Sullivan put them on and was taken to headquarters. Sullivan told the officer that the door was open and he had simply walked into the house to get a match.

Kata Duda, aged 13, testified that she saw Sullivan in the house about 2:15. John Anderson, a boarder in the Duda household, testified that he was lying awake about two o'clock and saw someone enter the room, but at first believed it to be another boarder who had come in for a match or something. The fellow had walked up to the bed and slipped a hand beneath the pillow and the other hand in the witness' pocket. Witness then grasped the fellow by the hand and led him down the kitchen. Sullivan was the man caught in his bedroom.

Mrs. Mary Duda testified to having seen Sullivan in her kitchen. He had then come to her bedroom and looked in the closet. Sullivan was then one of the boarders apprehended him. She was lying in bed, endeavoring to get her baby to sleep. The outer door to the house was shut but not locked. A number of other witnesses for the state were in court but no more were called.

Sullivan informed the court that he would like to tell his side of the story. He commenced by saying about nine o'clock Monday evening he had gone down to the Stone row to see John Ladda and they sat upon the step talking and drinking for a while. He became intoxicated and walked across the track to the place near the cotton mill and went to sleep. Later he awoke and wanting a smoke found that he did not possess a match. He saw a light in one of the Stone row tenements and went there to see if he could get a match. He had taken his shoes off when he went to sleep and when he went to the Stone row he carried them in his hand. He walked right into the house and looked around but could not find a match. There was a lighted lamp in the kitchen. He went up stairs because he heard a man snoring. Upon entering the bedroom he awoke the fellow and asked him for a match. They both went down to the kitchen. He was given a match and then the officer was sent for. He said he did not mean to do any one any harm and had no idea of taking anything, his sole purpose being to get a match.

Judge Arnold asked him if he did not think it a risky thing to walk into a house at two in the morning to get a match. Sullivan admitted it was, but said he would not have done it if he had not been drinking. Judge Arnold said he was obliged to bind him over to the next term of the superior court, as the witnesses were all against him. Perhaps in the superior court the jury might find differently. Sullivan was taken to Brooklyn jail on the 2:45 a. m. train by Officer Allan McArthur.

NIGHT SCHOOL REPORT.

Total Expenses for Seventy-five Sessions $1,200—Total Registration 216.

Secretary L. B. Lincoln of the town school committee has just compiled the figures of expenses and attendance at the night school that was conducted with the town through the management of a sub-committee, and will shortly forward the data to the state department at Hartford for approval in order to be able to obtain the state grant.

The gross expenses were about $1,200 against $39.70 a year ago. Teachers' wages amounted to $210.50, there being a principal at $3.50 per night, and five regular teachers, with several more assistants for a brief period. Fuel and incidentals cost $70.50; gas and supplies, $133.47; janitor (extra pay), $150, amounting to $1,246.47, an excess of $364.77 over last year.

J. L. Harroun was in charge of the school and associated with him were these teachers: Florence M. Pliske, Gladys Lathrop, Lucy Allen, Frances T. O'Neill, Genevieve Royce, Katherine Carey, Mrs. Susan T. Sullivan, Mrs. Robert Rose and Mrs. Ellison S. Smith.

Seventy-five sessions of the school were held, commencing October 23 and concluding March 2. The average attendance was 94.82, per cent. of the total registration, which was 216. The subjects taught included reading, writing, arithmetic, spelling, geography, history, language, civics, typewriting and stenography. The town will receive several hundred dollars from the state to assist in defraying the expenses of the night school. Last year the net cost was $378.74. The night school committee comprised Curtis Dean, Mrs. K. J. Spaulding and James P. Twomey.

Illustrated Lecture.

There was a pleasing entertainment Tuesday evening in the Methodist Episcopal church under the auspices of the Junior League and Boy Scouts. Rev. Louis M. but he did not do so. A short time ago Mr. Berard found that Fisher was working in Hartford and took advantage of the law in such cases and brought an action against Fisher and the latter's wages were attached. The judgment Tuesday morning was for the bill of $45 and the costs, amounting in all to $53.05.

Plans Pleasant Outing.

Harold Taylor left Tuesday morning on a business trip to Springfield, Mass. for a few days. He will then go to Chicago, and Kalamazoo, Mich., where his sister, Miss Ruth, is a guest of college friends. Mr. Taylor will spend a week in the Michigan city and then go to Montreal, thence to Nominque, P. Q. where he will be the guest of a friend who has a fine hunting camp and fishing reservation. Mr. Taylor will be gone three weeks or a month.

Fourteen societies competed for the prizes this afternoon. The awards will be announced tomorrow. Tonight more than 600 voices sang in a mass chorus to the great delight of the large audience. The big parade will be held tomorrow morning, following which there will be a picnic at Haraguard park.

Gymnasium Exercises.

Every person who has received gymnasium training is aware of the fact that an exercise which calls for painful effort on the part of the beginner is often performed almost without any conscious effort at all after a certain amount of training has been received.

Again, it is perfectly well known that brute strength alone does not make a gymnast, and that even a simple exercise may offer great difficulty to a muscular and well developed individual who has not been trained in the gymnasium. The explanation for this is made in an article by Prof. DeSola Esmond in the "Littell's Living Age" who points out that one of the essential functions of gymnasium work is not so much to build up muscle as to train nerves and nerve groups to work in proper unison and co-ordination.

Children who have been brought up as pets may never get over being disagreeable.

UTICA, N. Y., MAN

Calls Saxe Salve "a Wonderful Remedy for Eczema."

I am writing this with the hope that it may induce others who are suffering from skin affections as I was to try Saxe Salve. For three years I suffered from eczema and was treated by several physicians, but none seemed to relieve me from that terrible itching. I saw an advertisement of Saxe Salve and decided to try it. The very first application brought relief, and I cannot say too much for a remedy that has cured me from eczema.—Albert P. Krupka, 309 Wage Street, Utica, N. Y.

In all forms of skin disease Saxe Salve quickly allays the terrible itching, and its antiseptic, healing properties penetrate the skin and destroy the germs of disease.

If you have any skin trouble try Saxe Salve on one square of skin to return your money if it does not help you. Broadway Pharmacy, 62 G. Encler, Newburgh, Conn.

GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES

MUST GO WITHOUT PAY

Failure to Pass Appropriation Bill
Annouys Departments.

Washington, June 24.—The failure of congress to pass appropriation bills for the running expenses of the government after June 30 is causing much concern to department officials. Secretary Wilson has sent word to many of his field men not to incur any expenses after June 30. Secretary Stimson today issued a general army order similar to that issued last week to the navy. In general, it provides for feeding and clothing the troops, the continuation of enlistment and the continued employment of the civil employees of the army but with the understanding that they, as well as the line and staff of the army, must go without pay until congress provides.

Restricted Sales.

Department stores would have fared hard in the seventeenth century unless their proprietors could have induced parliament to grant more privileges than were allowed to other shopkeepers. The articles that a grocer might sell were definitely prescribed. They were "raysons, currants, sugar, spice, soap, candles, molasses, gunpowder, shot, match, tar, pitch, rosin, tobacco, cotton yarn, starch, bluing, prunes, figs, lard, oil, lead, olives, Spanish white anabaster, rum, almonds, brimstone, lampblack and candle rushe."
